I want to ask you these three questions and if I am satisfied with your answer, it will determine my answer to your question. Did you believe me to be virtuous when you came here to ask me to be your wife Oh, yes, I believed you to be virtuous. Thats the reason I came here. You are like violets dipped in dew. The second question: Have you as a young man lived as you demand of me as a girl that I, should have lived The third question: If I, as a girl, had lived and done as you, as a young man, and you knew it, would you ask me to marry you They will line up and nine times out of ten they will take the count. You can line them up, and I know what I am talking about, and I defy...
