Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Model Charter for Texas Cities: Bulletin of the University of Texas, February 10, 1914 The Bureau of Municipal Research and Reference was organized at the University of Texas in June, 1913. Its chief purpose is to aid, so far as may be possible, in the solution of some of the difficult problems that present themselves in the government of cities, especially in Texas. To attain this end the Bureau is proceeding in two ways. In the first place, it is collecting all possible material relating to the government of cities in this country and abroad, which material will be at the disposal of any city that cares to take advantage of it. For this purpose the officials of the Bureau stand ready to answer, so far as they may be able, any inquiries that may be sent to the Bureau by the municipalities of Texas, or of other states. In the second place, the Bureau aims to publish in bulletin form from time to time information on matters of municipal interest which might prove...
