Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notes of a Journey From Toronto to British Columbia: Via the Northern Pacific Railway (June to July 1884); Being Letters to His Sister and Mother From Charles Westly Busk, C. E., M.A. Trin; Coll; Camb My Dear Madeline, - You will probably have received, by the time this arrives, the post-card I sent you announcing my safe arrival at this city of the Far West, as also I hope, in their due order! the cards I posted almost daily en route. I now propose to give you a short account of the journey and the country and scenery on the way. A good deal of the information and the Indian stories and legends are all from reliable sources, as far as I have been able to obtain such; and I trust the combination may prove instructive, geographically and historically, as well as afford amusement. As the country between Toronto, Chicago, and St. Paul is comparatively well known, and is a route constantly traversed by hundreds of people, I do not propose to enter into any details of that part of the trip, but only to confine myself to the Northern Pacific Railroad and its connection with the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, which, as you should know from the post-cards received, is that part of the journey lying between St. Paul and the Queen City of the West. There was a good deal of hesitation as to how I should travel; I don't mean whether on foot, horseback, or rail, but as to the class of train to be used, for there is not only a difference in time of two days, but also...
