21 Popular Sports and Games: Rules and Regulations

By B.K. Chaturvedi

Goodwill Publishing House, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Although with the growth of modern technology many previous laws have become rather redundant yet the infinite human ingenuity to exploit the loopholes in the formulated rules and laws has made their formulation almost a continuous process. No matter how fast one tries to walk abreast with the latest sets of rules some obsolescence invariably creeps in. So while it can't be said that all the rules and the laws of the games and sports described in the book are the latest, it can be proudly claimed that it covers most of the major innovations or changes that have appeared in the rules. As for the techniques of the various games included in the book, the attempt has been made to dwell only on the basics and not on their names - for there is no end to them. Of course, some of the names have also been illustrated in order to help the reader comprehend other similar variations. The paucity of the space forced this strategy to be adopted, otherwise this book would have become a tone of gargantuan proportions. The emphasis has only been on selecting the basic techniques...
