After graduation he went into business in New York City as bookkeeper of the Composite Iron Works Company, where he remained for two years. He then became connected with the firm of Butler, Pitkin Co., in the wholesale dry goods business, remaining with them until they retired from business in 1884. He was then for five years with the firm of Butler, Clapp Co. and their successors. In 1889 he became cashier of B. Blumenthal Co., in the button business, and in April, 1890, moved to Montclair, N. J., where he now resides. In 1899 he became connected with the American Agricultural Chemical Company, of which he was elected second assistant treasurer. He was married June 20, 1883, to Mary E., daughter of Henry and Elizabeth Craig of Detroit, and has three children: Edith S., born April 7, 1884, who was...
