

War, Peace and International Relations in Islam: Muslim Scholars on Peace Accords with Israel

By Dr Yitzhak Reiter

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: Arabic . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The book presents and analyses fatwas - rulings of Islamic law, issued by religious sages and clerics on issues of war and peace in regard to the actual or future possibility of a peace agreement between Muslim states and Israel. The analysis provides an understanding of a number of phenomena that characterize the Muslim world today: Islamic law's adaptation to changing political realities; the place of Muslim religious law in general and of the legal opinion (fatwa), regarding timely matters, in particular; the split between two major religious currents - one radical and one pragmatic, and the mechanisms for interpretation that each uses; the tensions between tradition and modernity; the relationship between religious decisions and interpretations of religious law on the one hand and ideological challenges, national and military, on the other hand; the role of the fatwa as an instrument of propaganda or publicity in an age of mass media; the gap between religious leaders (muftis) associated with the authorities and those who are independent, or between those who identify with the regime and those with...
