Excerpt: .and hundreds of thousands such as these. Will they beckon always in vain? Must they live out their hopeless life, and die their bitterly hopeless death, before anyone ever goes in? 241 All Fukien is awake today to the evangel of Christ. Chinese believers are praying and preaching as never before, and among the men much is known about Him who came to be the Saviour of the world. But these women folk, shut up to their pipes and gossip, are as ignorant of Him as if He had never lived and died and risen again for them. Yet their hands are stretched out to us in friendly welcome, and we need an army of workers, free from other service, to seize the golden moment when they are ready to listen. We need an army, and we have just one. We are asking, definitely and in faith; That the Woman s Board will send us: 1. For Ponasang, immediately, an associate for Miss Ga?/1/etson. 2. For Pagoda, two ladies. One to assist in the Woman s Training School, and one for evangelistic work. 3. For Diong Loh, two ladies, a physician and an evangelist., 4. For Foochow City, an evangelist with full nurse s training, to accompany the physician in her visits, and to follow them up with Christian teaching. That the Woman s Board of the Interior will send: 1. For Foochow City, one evangelist with superior training as teacher, to work in the...
