His primary education was received and completed in the grammar schools of Scottsville and Culpeper, Va. Anxious to obtain a further education, he entered the Virginia Mechanics Institute, of Richmond, Va., from which he graduated in Mathematics. In October, 1886, he entered the office of Dr. J. Hall Moore, one of the leading Dentists of Richmond. Thus was started his Dental career. After working with Dr. Moore for three years, he entered the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery on September 28, 1889. On March 23, 1891. he graduated from this college, receiving Honorable Mention. The first year and a half of his Dental practice was spent in Richmond and Charlottesville, Virginia, and then, attracted by the magnet that draws men hither and thither to the ends of the earth, he moved to Baltimore in September, 1892. A short time afterward he was appointed to assistant demonstratorship at the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, and worked through the various grades...
