Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Salvation Through Mary This little volume with its mission of endeavoring to utter sweet things of the most gracious Mother of God owes its nativity to the earnest wishes of my family. What prompted them to suggest this particular and noble theme is, however, upon reflection, to my mind, very natural; and I venture to fancy that the relationship of cause and effect, from the nature of its particularity in the present instance, is invested with sufficient interest to warrant its being publicly set forth. All the children of my virtuous and devout mother have been drilled in Mary-cult and no picture is so familiar to them as Our Lady's Shrine. From the beginning it was the custom with our family that all of us children had to tramp - if not always disposed to, bound - to daily Mass, by our mother's side, during Mary's month. The memories of those bright May days are with us never to part. I see the red lamp blinking, nodding, wriggling, to free itself, as it were, from the taper's clasp. I scent the young leaves and blossoms of the bower which Mary's lovers have weaved about her glorious image out of the freshest and most fragrant roses. I hear the melodic hymns of the innocents upon whose hearts the cold chill blast of the world has not yet blown its taint, its sorrows and its coldness. In the midst of all this comes forth the lesson of the day. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
